

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING AT THE MUSEUM STORE

'Tis the season! All too soon Christmas will be upon us. Come buy your gifts and stocking stuffers at the new and improved Museum Store. Christine Edlund of Christe James Jewelry Works of Danville was kind enough to donate her time and talents to help us achieve a more professional look. So be prepared to be enticed by the store's appearance and our holiday merchandise. There is lots of free parking, no long lines and your purchases help the Museum continue to be a highlight of our community!

Farm Diaries on CDs Available for Purchase

The Farm Diaries of George McCamley are available on computer disks for sale at the Museum Store.

An introduction talks about this important San Ramon leader, his life and his ranch. The diaries are very readable on a computer screen where readers can examine them closely.

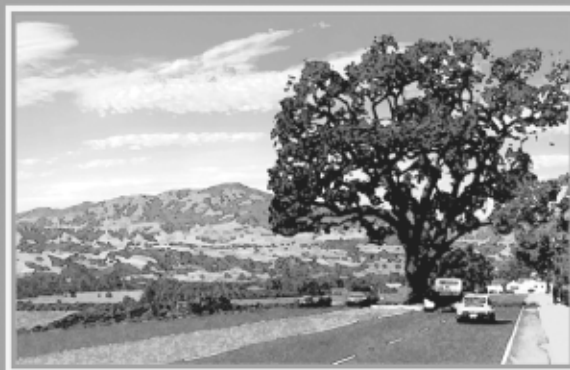

There are six diaries stretching from 1861 to 1891, with many insights into the weather, crops, employee problems and churches of the Valley. The cost is $20.
